Important Work on Controversy.

In the Press, and will be ready shortly,

THE "CONTROVERSIAL CORRESPONDENCE,"

Between R. W. KENNARD, Esq., London, and the Rev. PAUL MACLACHLAN, Roman Catholic Priest, Falkirk.

In Demy 8vo., price 5s. to SUBSCRIBERS ONLY.

This correspondence, conducted with great ability on both sides, has, at length, terminated by the withdrawal of the Rev. Mr. MacLachlan from the contest, who has republished the whole of his letters, WITHOUT THOSE OF MR. KENNARD! As such a proceeding is evidently unfair, it is intended that the entire correspondence, consisting of about 70 letters, shall be published, so as that the nature of the Controversy may be thoroughly understood by all parties.

Dr. Irving writes—"This is a remarkable publication. Mr. MacLachlan is sufficiently skilled in the Romish arts of controversy; but in logical dexterity, and even in theological learning, the priest is no match for the Protestant layman."

The Rev. John Evans writes—"This correspondence furnishes decidedly the best Handbook of the Romish Controversy yet extant."

The Venerable Dr. Croly says of Mr. Kennard's letters—"I sincerely admire their learning, reasoning, and spirit of Christianity; and I know of no production fitter to produce a more ample assurance in the mind of any man open to rational conviction." It has also been characterized as the "most important controversy that has taken place since the days of Stillfleet."

The Controversy embraces the modern arguments of Romanists, having reference more particularly to History than Doctrine; and the Book will form an excellent companion to Dr. Cumming's Controversy with Mr. French, known as the Hammersmith Discussion, which is exclusively Doctrinal.

The Work is now publishing in one Volume, Demy 8vo., and will contain above 700 pages, with a copious and useful Index. Price 5s. to SUBSCRIBERS ONLY.

The names of Subscribers are requested to be sent as early as possible to WILLIAM CURRY and Co., 9, Upper Sackville-street, Dublin.

A Digest of the Evidence,

TAKEN BEFORE

THE SELECT COMMITTEE OF THE HOUSE OF LORDS, APPOINTED TO INQUIRE INTO THE WORKING OF THE

NATIONAL SYSTEM OF EDUCATION

IN

IRELAND;

WITH ADDENDA AND APPENDIX.

BY THE

REV. WILLIAM LE POER TRENCH, D.D.,

Rector of Killreran, Diocese of Tuam, and one of the Honorary Secretaries of the Church Education Society for Ireland.

"Dr. Trench has extracted the Substance of the Evidence, on the subject of Public Education in Ireland, and has produced it in a concise and systematic form. His 'Digest' is intended to enable persons interested in the Educational movement in progress in Ireland, to understand, at a glance, the results of the inquiry alluded to."—Athenaeum.

"The invaluable 'Digest of the Evidence,' by Dr. Trench, has placed the substance of the 'Blue Book' in a clear, comprehensive form before all those who are interested in this great question. It was a work of great labour, of no ordinary patience, and requiring the utmost discrimination. But the result has been eminently successful. The plan of the 'Digest' is admirable; and the subjects so well classified, that immediate reference can be made to the most important evidence on every branch of the inquiry. It is a volume which will never lose its interest, so long as there is a friend of Scriptural Education to be encouraged, and an advocate of a godless expediency to be put to shame."—Christian Examiner.
